Tenth Annual Symposium

Advances in Gastroenterology

As in other medical specialties, technological advances in gastroenterology have improved our diagnostic and treatment potential in recent years.

This program for the primary clinician is designed to scan these developments and place them in proper perspective.

Opportunity is provided for open and informal interchange between faculty and participants as well as panel discussions among faculty members.

Open to graduates of approved medical schools.

Course Chairmen

Richard F. Corlin, MD, Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology, UCLA School of Medicine

Thomas Kun, MD, Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine, Division of Gastroenterology, UCLA School of Medicine

Arno A. Roscher, MD, Director of Pathology and Continuing Medical Education, Granada Hills Community Hospital; Director of Pathology, Henry Mayo Memorial Hospital; Associate Clinical Professor of Pathology, LAC/USC School of Medicine

This seminar is approved for up to 6 hours of Category I (formally constituted programs)-credit toward the CMA certificate in Continuing Medical Education and the American Medical Association's Physician's Recognition Award.

Sunday, November 19, 1978
